Dated 23rd April 1919.

D. O. No. A. 14

My dear sir,

Mr. C. Venkata Rao, Offg. Superintendent, Amruth Mahal Department, was promoted to fourth class Assistant Commissioner on Rs.300/- with effect from 6th January 1916. He is due his next increment from 6th January 1919.

He was appointed Superintendent, Amruth Mahal Department, on probation for one year from 21st April 1918. As the probationary period has expired on 20th April 1919, he has to be confirmed as Superintendent, Amruth Mahal Department, with effect from 21st April 1919.

His Highness desires that necessary action in regard to the above may kindly be taken.

Yours sincerely,
M. Visvesvaraya

C 357/19.

Submitted to His Highness.

19/ These papers relate to the question of the confirmation of Mr. C. Venkata Rao, B.A., as Superintendent, Amrit Mahal Department.

S 20/ 2. He was appointed Superintendent, Amrit Mahal Department, on probation for one year from 21st April 1918. As the period of probation expired on 20th April 1919, the question of confirming him in that appointment was taken up for consideration.

21/ 3. The Extraordinary Member of Council, while suggesting that Mr. C. Venkata Rao may be confirmed as Superintendent, Amrit Mahal Department, with effect from 21st April 1919, has noted as follows:--

"As Mr. C. Venkata Rao is getting a salary of Rs.600/- (Rs.350 pay, plus Rs.100, plus Rs.150 consolidated charge allowance) exclusive of the allowance of Rs.50 which he has now been drawing for work in connection with Government House, I suggest he be given the same grade his predecessor had as long as he continues to be the Superintendent of the Amrit Mahal Department."

22/ 4. In connection with the proposed appointment of an Expert in Animal Husbandry in the State, the Extraordinary

G Member has noted as follows:-

"I have no objection to the Expert in Animal Husbandry working in close connection with the Amrit Mahal Department and the Kunigal Stud Farm. I presume his work will, at any rate in the beginning, be confined to giving direction and supervision. The actual management of the department may, however, be allowed to continue as it is at present, till the expert gains sufficient experience of local cattle and horses."

29.7.19

C 351/192.

23) 5. The subject was considered in Council on the 5th June 1919 and it was resolved that Mr. C. Venkata Rao might continue in charge of the Amrit Mahal Department as at present and that his confirmation might be considered along with other arrangements that had to be made in the Military Department when Col. J. Desaraj Urs retired and also along with the arrangements consequent on the employment of an Expert in Animal Husbandry.

24) 6. Orders regarding the appointment of Mr.Shaver as Expert in Animal Husbandry issued on the 7th July 1919. And the arrangements in the Military Department consequent on the retirement of Col. Desaraj Urs were also considered and disposed of in Council on the 11th July 1919, as in the extract of the Proceedings put up. This is being separately submitted for His Highness' orders.

Flag I

25) 7. The question was therefore further considered in Council on the 24th July 1919 and it was resolved that Mr. C. Venkata Rao might be confirmed as Amrit Mahal Superintendent and given a consolidated pay of Rs.600 and that he might, however, be allowed to draw in addition the allowance of Rs.50 per mensem for Government House work.

Dear Sir,

Please refer to Mr. Campbell's letter dated the 11th August 1919 regarding the confirmation of Mr. Venkata Rao. I am desired to say that as it is not known when the new expert on animal husbandry is likely to come here, it seems to be unnecessary to postpone the confirmation of Mr. Venkata Rao as Amrit Mahal Superintendent. I am to request therefore that the recommendation made in his favour by you in File No. C.224 dated the 30th July 1919, may be now given effect to.

Yours Sincerely
